Student Handbook

JENKS HIGH SCHOOL BAND HANDBOOK

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Jenks High School Band Handbook is to inform band members and their parents of the expectations of the high school band program. The following guidelines are designed to promote the constructive teaching and learning environment needed to develop and maintain a successful program at the highest level of excellence.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

The Jenks High School Band Program is dedicated to helping students become responsible adults through participation in musical ensembles. The Band Program is an important part of the total school life. This band represents a large, visible, and highly disciplined segment of the school groups. Being a member of the Jenks High School Band requires commitment, responsibility, and organization. Members are given the opportunity to develop self-esteem, poise, and confidence in addition to strengthening their musical abilities. The band staff considers these personal traits vital to the success in adult occupations and professions. It is our goal to give every student the finest musical experiences available.

GENERAL RULES

1. No gum, candy, food, or drink is allowed in the band room.
2. No talking when a director is in front of the group.
3. If you are not early, you are late. Students should be in their seats/spots, warming up and ready to rehearse, ten minutes before the rehearsal is scheduled to begin.
4. When in doubt, don't.
5. If it's not yours, leave it alone.
6. Leave the room in a neat and orderly condition. Return items to their proper place. Be responsible with school and personal equipment. Instruments should be properly disassembled and stored in a band room locker. Clothes and other articles should be kept in your school assigned locker. The band room is locked after 1st hour – students should not expect to have access to items that they will need during the school day in the band room.
7. Respect our band, our goals, and our members.
8. We are and always will be a first-class organization.
9. Always put forth effort to do your best.
10. Always be prepared musically and mentally. Anything can happen. Band members must bring their instruments, music, and rehearsal materials to each rehearsal and performance. Every band member is expected to have their own accessories such as reeds, valve oil, mouthpieces, sticks and mallets.

BEHAVIOR

1. We are and always will be a first-class organization. When you are with our band you are representing our school, our community, and our state. Every band member should be conscious of their behavior and the impressions that it makes. Your words and actions will be heard, seen, and interpreted by many people. Do not draw undue attention to yourself. Represent this program in the manner that it should be represented. Take pride in what you do and how you do it.
2. At football games, students move and are seated in an organized manner. As every stadium is different, some flexibility will be required. In general, students will be placed in rows according to their sections and chair order. Woodwinds will be near the front, Battery will be in the middle, and Brass, Guard, and Front Ensemble will be at the back. Students are expected to stay in their assigned area with their section. There is to be no mixing of sections. Students are to be attentive to the directors, drum majors, and game. This is not primarily a socializing time. Electronic devices are not to be used during the course of the game. Alumni are allowed to mingle with students at the discretion of directors.
3. Bus drivers, directors, and chaperones have disciplinary authority during games and trips. School policies will be observed at all times.
4. No student will exit a bus before the entire bus is determined to be clean by the chaperones on board. The responsibility of cleaning the bus is yours not anyone else's.

CONSEQUENCES

Students will be disciplined to the degree of the infraction and in accordance with band and school handbook policies. Some examples of disciplinary action are listed (but not limited to) below:

1. Students with gum, candy, food or drink in the band room will receive discipline and punishment ranging from menial after-school jobs to after-school detention.
2. Excessive tardies and/or absences from rehearsals and/or performances will result in a deduction of grade, possible placement of alternate status or lowering of chair placement, and/or dismissal from the program.
3. Band members who forget their instruments or rehearsal materials will also result in a deduction of grade, possible placement of alternate status or lowering of chair placement, and/or dismissal from the program.
4. Band members that are not in full and proper uniform will not be allowed to perform with the group.

SCHOOL OWNED INSTRUMENTS & EQUIPMENT

Some school-owned instruments and equipment will be checked out to students during the year. A $25.00 fee will be required per semester from students using school-owned instruments/equipment and is due the first month of each semester. This fee will be used to help offset the cost of upkeep and repair of the instruments. The high school band department will assume financial responsibility for normal maintenance and repair of school-owned instruments and equipment. Students are expected to properly care for and maintain school instruments while it is in their possession. Any damage, loss, or neglect of an instrument that is not considered normal will be the responsibility of the student and their parents.

LOCKERS

Each student involved with the band program is assigned a locker so students may store instruments and materials. Students are to use only their assigned locker. Lockers should be kept in good condition and locks are to remain locked at all times. For safety reasons, students should remember, but not share combinations with other students.

GRADING

Grades in band reflect the student's performance in all aspects of being a responsible member of the performing organization. Every band member will be held accountable for their attendance, punctuality, materials, and most importantly, their musical preparation. A student's grade will be averaged from the following:

1. Playing Tests – This is a primary portion of the grading for the class. In most cases, playing tests are worth 100 points each. Evaluation of student's performances of assigned music will be conducted regularly. Playing tests will be conducted during rehearsal times. If you are having trouble with your music contact one of the directors or your section leader for a time when you can get some help. We want to help you! Playing tests will begin during Pre-Band and will continue throughout the school year. Playoff music will be posted on the white board in the main band room or on the website at least one week in advance so students may adequately prepare. Should a student fail a playing test, the directors have the option of assigning that student to take the test again, alternate status within the performing ensemble, forfeiting their chair placement, or dismissing the student from the performing ensemble.
2. Attendance and Punctuality – Rehearsals, performances, clinics, and trips are not optional. They are a requirement. Not only for a grade but also for the success of the entire group. An absence may be excused for serious illness, death in the family, or another school-sponsored activity. Other commitments such as work or non-school activities will not be excused. Students that have an unexcused absence from a sectional, rehearsal, performance, or clinic will result in a deduction of grade, possible placement of alternate status or lowering of chair placement, and/or dismissal from a performing ensemble. Each student is given

25 participation points for each week. Standard deductions from participation points for unexcused absences/tardies are listed as (but not limited to): tardy – 5 to 10 points, absence from sectional or rehearsal – 10 to 15 points, absence from a performance – 15 to 20 points. A calendar listing all dates, times, locations, and other important information is readily available on the band's website. Use this to help set your schedule well in advance and to anticipate and/or avoid conflicts. It is strongly recommended that copies be made for parents and employers.

3. Materials and Maintenance – Students must have the proper materials and equipment at the proper time to have productive rehearsals and performances. Items such as instrument, binder, music, pencil, and guard equipment should be readily available on a daily basis. Proper maintenance of instruments is also expected. Woodwind players should have enough reeds to use, brass instruments should be well oiled and greased, and percussionists should have all necessary sticks and mallets. Periodic checks of these items will be made with or without prior notice. Material and Maintenance checks are also usually worth 25 points.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

As stated in the grading section, a tardy or absence from a rehearsal or performance may be excused for serious illness, death in family, or school sponsored activity. It is the responsibility of the student to personally notify the director of the conflict. Notification must always be given. When possible, notification must be given two weeks prior to the event. Notification must be in hard copy or electronic form. Verbal notification will not be accepted. Students in multiple activities will be expected to balance and prioritize their time for sectionals, rehearsals, and performances. Students should not assume that the band will be the only department to be flexible. Organization, responsibility, and accountability are essential for proper communication between students and activity sponsors.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION/COMMUNICATION

The band's website, www.jenksband.com, is the primary source of information and an effective means of communication for the students and parents from the directors. The band parent's website, www.jenksbandparents.com, is the primary source of information and communication for the students and parents from the parent organization. When trying to obtain information concerning a rehearsal, performance, or various other information, the website should be accessed first. If the information desired cannot be obtained through the website, students should ask members of the student leadership team before approaching their directors; parents are welcome to email any director at any time. Parent meetings are held on a monthly basis and provide another means of communication. Meetings are usually held the first Thursday of each month. This is a great opportunity to meet other band parents, be a part of a first-class organization, and an excellent chance to become more involved in your child's participation.

ELIGIBILITY

1. The standards mandated by the Oklahoma Secondary Schools Activities Association and those of the Jenks Independent School District will be used to determine a student's eligibility for performances.
2. An ineligible student will not be allowed to dress in uniform/concert attire, participate in performances, or attend the event.
3. Students who have consistent eligibility problems may not be allowed to rehearse with the performing group, may be placed on alternate status (during marching season), or may be removed from the program.
4. Students are responsible for fully meeting the financial obligations as outlined in the Trip Fund Policy portion of this handbook regardless of academic status.
5. Absences due to ineligibility are considered unexcused and will be treated as such according to the grading policy outlined in this handbook.
6. The Jenks High School Band policy states that participation in band requires continuous enrollment from semester to semester. Participation in the first semester is a prerequisite for participation in the second semester and vice versa. Because of the nature of the instrumental music instruction, continuous enrollment is a must. Therefore, it is a requirement to enroll in both semesters of band.
7. Special circumstances may require a student to drop band. However, any student that drops band may not be guaranteed future enrollment in the program. The band directors, in conjunction with the counseling center and the school's administration, will determine whether a student will again be allowed to enroll in band.

UNIFORMS

The marching band uniform/show performance costume is the most visible symbol of our group as a legitimate school organization. Therefore, the uniforms must be kept and worn with pride and respect. When being worn, a student should be in full and proper uniform at all times. (Students should not at any time walk around in partial uniform, unbuttoned, unzipped, etc). The marching band uniform consists of a shako & plume, jacket & gauntlets, black gloves, gray or black band pants, Trojan Pride maroon undershirt, Trojan Pride gray athletic shorts, black socks, and regulation black marching shoes. The maroon shirt and gray shorts are to be worn underneath the uniform. Socks must be completely black (no colored heel or designs) and come up to the mid-calf level of the student's leg. Students not having these items will not be allowed to perform with the group. When changing clothes, modesty is key. Designated changing areas are the student bathrooms or another area that has been officially designated for students to change. Students should not be changing clothes in the rehearsal rooms or in faculty bathrooms. Students should not leave changing areas in a state of disarray, but neat and clean. In the event that facilities are not available at a contest, separate buses will be utilized when changing clothes. No jewelry, hats, medals, sunglasses, buttons, or pins are to be worn with the uniform. Exceptions may be made in case of extreme weather. Exceptions would include items such as coats, layers of clothes underneath the uniform, gloves, beanies/knit caps, blankets, etc. These items are to be in school colors. As to avoid accidents, the types of foods and drinks allowed while the students are in uniform will be limited. Usually, food such as fruit is provided by the parent organization during the third quarter. Students are not allowed to purchase or receive food and drink items from an outside source while in uniform. Water will readily be available throughout the game.

Students are expected to take care of the uniforms. Pants and jackets must be hung properly, and other parts of the uniform stored correctly in closets, racks, or buses. Check out times for the uniforms will be posted on the website. In the case of any type of accident, the student should notify the director immediately.

Every member should also have purchased at least one travel shirt. These shirts will be worn at times assigned (contests, performances, etc.) throughout the year.

Concert attire, referred to as concert black, is utilized for all indoor concerts. Concert attire is ordered or mediated through the band parent organization. Do not purchase attire on your own. For Gentlemen, this includes a black tuxedo (jacket and pants), white tux shirt, black bow tie & cummerbund, black dress socks (calf-length), and formal black dress shoes. For Ladies, this includes a black, full-length dress, and formal dress shoes. Heel height is not an issue as long as the shoes are formal. Information regarding concert attire usually comes out in mid-November.

ALTERNATES /SHADOWS

Alternates and shadows are terms exclusive to marching season. Shadows are students who share a spot in the competitive block of the show and share performance time at football games and contests. Alternates are not placed in the competitive block, but still perform at football games and are assigned roles/responsibilities at marching contests. Students may be placed on alternate status for deficiencies in playing, marching, attendance, behavior, or eligibility. They do practice with the marching band on a daily basis and, if academically eligible, will participate in some capacity at contests – this is usually prop responsibilities and/or helping move equipment. There are at certain times, opportunities for students to move from alternate status into the competitive block. Students are monitored for progress during the course of the marching season and moved to the competitive block as the need arises if they can demonstrate the skill level necessary for competition.

HONOR BAND AUDITIONS

Band members are strongly encouraged to audition for membership in honor bands. Membership in the North Central Directors Association (NCDA) Regional Honor Band and/or the Oklahoma Music Educators Association (OMEA) All-State Band is a great honor and holds much significance for university officials when distributing scholarship offers. Preparation for these auditions requires a great deal of initiative and self-discipline, as most of the practice is done out of class. Students auditioning for NCDA and/or OMEA are strongly encouraged to include sight-reading as part of their preparation for the audition. Sight-reading is a major portion of the audition process and has a direct impact on whether a student makes the honor band and how high they place.

SOLOS & ENSEMBLES

Another opportunity for musical growth is through participation in solo and ensemble contests. It is another opportunity for exposure to challenging music of various styles on an individual basis or through a smaller group. Students will have the opportunity to compete at the District and State level contests. As with honor bands, a great deal of initiative and preparation is done outside of class. Regular rehearsals with accompanists or ensembles will be scheduled in the spring.

PRIVATE LESSONS

Students are also highly encouraged to study privately on their instrument. This gives the student the opportunity to study with a person who specializes on their particular instrument. A list of teachers and contact information is available on the band website. Students must study on a consistent basis for the entire school year and verification from the private instructor will be required in order to earn letter points. Students who have successfully participated in OMEA All-State Band are eligible to teach private lessons to younger Jenks band students. Students who have also successfully participated in NCDA may also be eligible with approval. Students interested in doing this should contact a director in order to obtain approval and receive additional information.

TRIPS & FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Parents and students should be thoroughly familiar with the workings of the Trip Fund Policy. The policy is included as part of this handbook. Trips are part of the curriculum as they provide both unique performance and educational opportunities. All students are expected to attend, participate, and be financially prepared for band trips. Costs and payment deadline information is given well in advance to assist students and their families to do so. Concession work as well as general and individual fundraising activities are provided to help offset the cost and out of pocket expenses for the students and their families for these trips. Advanced and careful planning is necessary for trips of this nature to be successful for the individual and for the group. We are also relying on students to manage their academic studies in such a manner so that eligibility issues will not be a concern.

For certain major trips, students may be offered the option to opt out of the trip if they wish. By doing so, students will not be held financially responsible or be penalized academically. Students opting out will automatically be limited in their participation for that particular contest or season, depending on the circumstances.

Students that opt in are fully committing themselves to the terms of the contract. If a student becomes ineligible or misses payment, the student may not go on the trip, be replaced or removed from the program, forfeit all deposits or previous payments, and lose participation points. Once a student has opted in, they are responsible for the entire cost of the trip, even if they do not travel as a result of ineligibility or missing a payment deadline.

TRIP FUND POLICY

Trip Fund Policy Approved on June 26, 2012 / Revised July 12, 2025

- Purpose: The primary purpose of the Trip Fund is to accumulate fund raising monies into individual accounts, which are used to offset trip expenses. Students, Parents and/or Guardians are responsible for any negative balance or difference between actual trip costs and the balance of the individual student trip accounts.

Any interest earned by the Trip Fund shall be used by the Club to defray the administrative expenses of the Club.

The Trip Fund Manager, who will have the responsibility of these accounts, shall be an elected Officer of the Club.

The Trip fund account shall identify funds designated for the student.

- Fund Raising: The Board of Directors and Instrumental Music Director shall have the joint responsibility to decide the nature and monetary benefit of each fund-raising project. The students will be advised prior to a specific fund-raiser how much Trip Credit may be earned by a specific project. Upon collection of money as a result of the fund-raising activity, each student will be credited with the appropriate amount of Trip Credit in his/her own Trip Account. No credit will be given until the money from the designated fund-raising activity has been collected. Any merchandise checked out to the student in advance of payment, shall be charged against the student's Trip Fund at wholesale cost. For checked out items, if they are returned (if allowed by particular fundraiser), account will be credited for wholesale cost. If full retail value of checked out item is paid, that amount will be credited to the student's account. All collected amounts, including insufficient checks accepted by the student, are the responsibility of the student.

- Statements of Account: The Trip Fund Manager will be responsible for posting of the Trip Fund balances on a regular basis on the Jenks Band website. Detailed statements will be provided to the Parent/Guardian upon request.

- Disbursement of Funds:

1. Parents/Guardians will be notified in advance of planned trips and expected cost estimates. During these trips, the band(s) typically compete on a multi-state or national level. All students are expected to participate on these trips. Prior to certain major trips, a deadline may be published where Parents/Guardians must elect for their student to either "opt-in" or "opt-out" of the pending band trip. Once the student has "opted-in," the guidelines of paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 under this Section IV will apply. Students who have "opted-in" must pay the entire amount of the trip cost by the designated deadline before the trip, or they will not be allowed to travel. If a student owes amounts from a previous trip, they will not be allowed to opt in for future trips until previous trip balance is paid in full.

New students enrolled in band after the opt-in deadline will have 7 calendar days after their first day of band (or until the final payment deadline if less than 7 calendar days after their first day of band) to opt-in or out for the trip. New students will be expected to pay in full by the payment deadline set for all students after opting in.

2. It is necessary to make advance deposits for transportation, lodging and meals, etc. for scheduled trips. Therefore, funds shall be due and payable from the student trip account in accordance with the schedule determined by the Executive Board for any planned trip. Deductions will be made from the individual trip funds of students, according to the schedule. Payment of necessary deposits, prepayments and guaranteed group rates for the planned number of participants shall be made on a pro-rata basis from the planned participants.

3. As a set number of participants are required to plan any scheduled trip, cancellation or failure of the student to participate due to lack of timely payment, dropped enrollment, academic ineligibility or disciplinary restrictions as determined by the Jenks Public School Administration are not valid reasons for non-payment or refund of payment for trip expenses.

4. All funds disbursed from the trip fund shall be considered non-refundable unless the Director of Instrumental Music cancels the trip and a refund is available from the provider of the contracted service. If a scheduled trip is officially cancelled by the Director of Instrumental Music all uncommitted, recoverable funds will be credited on a prorated bases within 30 calendar days from recovering funds.

5. In the event a student accumulates Trip Fund Credits in excess of the actual trip cost, the parent/guardian shall have the opportunity to exercise any combination of the following options:

- Any excess monies remaining in the trip account may be left for the benefit of a future trip by that student
- Any excess monies may be used to purchase band apparel, equipment and fees listed on the pre-band order form(s). Examples could include marching shoes, gloves, garment bags, instrument maintenance fees, lock-in fees, etc.
- Reimburse the costs of concert apparel
- Color Guard or Winter Guard apparel, uniforms or equipment.
- Instrumental Music Department Banquet tickets.

6. Seniors: In the event there are excess funds in a senior student's trip account, the funds may be:

- Transferred to the trip account of a sibling who remains in the Jenks Instrumental Music Program (grades 6-12). Or
- Donated to the Trip Fund balance for administrative or scholarship expenses (funds may not be given, applied, transferred or sold to another student who is not a sibling).

7. The trip account balance of a student who drops enrollment (for whatever reason) in the Jenks Instrumental Program shall be:

- a) Transferred to the trip account of a sibling who remains in the Jenks Instrumental Music Program (grades 6-12). Or
- b) Donated to the Trip Fund for administrative or scholarship expenses. There will be no trip fund reimbursements to any student dropping enrollment in the Jenks Instrumental Music Department program.

8. All refund options, including but not limited to those listed in this trip fund policy, are at the discretion of the Executive Board who has the final authority and responsibility.

9. The Executive Board shall approve the estimated costs of each trip and allocate such costs to each student. The estimates will be as close as possible; however, actual amounts may differ from the estimated costs. Should the actual costs be less than 95% of the estimated costs, the Club shall reimburse student accounts for any unused withdrawals in the excess of 5% of the estimated costs. The Club will generally absorb minor costs in excess of estimated costs; however, the Club does reserve the right to charge student trip accounts for cost over runs.

• Financial Assistance: The Club will conduct fund-raising to facilitate student financial assistance. Students with financial hardships may request a scholarship. In the event there are not enough funds available to help all those who request scholarships, the Director of Instrumental Music, Current Band Board President, Band Board President Elect, Trip Fund Officer, and Treasurer will have the responsibility to make a joint determination on the disbursement of any and all assistance funds. The criteria for the assistance shall be based on the following:

1. Actual monetary need for assistance, based on information provided to the Band Directors, and Band Board President.
2. Students requesting financial assistance must demonstrate their motivation and participation in fund-raising activities made available and offered to the entire enrollment.

3. Requests for financial assistance shall be made to the Director of Instrumental Music in writing at least 30 days prior to each trip payment deadline date using the “Trojan Pride Request for Scholarship” form. The form will be available from the Director of Instrumental Music.

- Financial Obligations: According to the Jenks Student Handbook, students who do not meet their financial obligations will have their name placed “on hold” as outlined in the Student or Band Handbook.

- Policy Distribution: A copy of the Trip Fund Policy is available on the Jenks Band website.

- Amendments and Revisions: The Trip Fund Policy may be amended or revised by a majority vote of the Executive Board at any time if it is considered necessary, providing copies are made available to all parties which may be involved with, or affected by the policy on the Band Parents website.

Jenks School District Student Extracurricular Activities Participant
Alcohol and Illegal or Performance Enhancing Drugs Contract
2025-2026 School Year

Statement of Purpose and Intent:

Participation in school sponsored extracurricular activities at the Jenks School District is a privilege and not a right. Such privilege is governed by the Jenks School District Policy on Alcohol and Drug Testing of Students Participating in Extracurricular Activities and/or Parking on School District Property (the "Policy"). Accordingly, student extracurricular activities participants carry a responsibility to themselves, their fellow students, their parents and their school to set the highest possible examples of conduct, which includes avoiding the use or possession of alcohol or illegal or performance enhancing drugs.

Participation in Extracurricular Activities:

For the safety, health and well-being of the students of the Jenks School District, the Jenks School District has adopted the Policy and this Student Extracurricular Activities Participant Alcohol and Illegal or Performance Enhancing Drugs Contract (the "Extra- curricular Activities Contract") which shall be read, signed and dated by the student, parent or custodial guardian and sponsor or coach before such student shall be eligible to practice or participate in any extracurricular activity. No student shall be allowed to practice or participate in any extracurricular activity unless the student has returned the properly signed Extracurricular Activities Contract.
